MEMO ENDORSED

Re: U.S. v. Jie Lin
21 Cr. 343 (SHS)

Dear Judge Stein:

On March 9, 2023, Mr. Lin entered a guilty plea to Count Two of the above-referenced indictment, charging him with operating a money transmitting business without a license in violation of 18 U.S.C. Section 1960, before M.J. Cott. Following his guilty plea, I asked the magistrate if he would order the removal of Mr. Lin's electronic monitoring condition and he suggested that such an application was appropriately made to your Honor.

Accordingly, I respectfully ask that your Honor modify the conditions of Mr. Lin's bond and order the removal of the electronic monitoring requirement. I have confirmed Mr. Lin's adherence to and compliance with the terms of his pretrial release with his Pretrial Officer in California. Further, Pretrial Services in the SDNY and AUSA Matthew Shahabian do not object to this request.

Your Honor's consideration of Mr. Lin's request to modify his bail conditions is appreciated.

Respectfully submitted,

Susan G. Kellman
